RE: MERYL L. ALLAWAS

OBJECTION TO MOTION OF FLORIDA JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION TO POSTPONE FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF STIPULATION

The Respondent Judge in the above-styled matter hereby files this objection to the Motion of the Florida Judicial Qualifications Commission to Postpone Further Consideration of Stipulation, and states as follows:

1. The Stipulation now pending before the Court entered into by the Judicial Qualifications Commission and the Respondent Judge in the above-styled matter was stipulated and negotiated and agreed to by all parties based on consideration of all of the then-pending allegations in evidence. The Stipulation is, at this time, in full force and effect.

2. No good cause has been shown in the Motion of the Florida Judicial Qualifications Commission to change the Stipulation, and no such motion is authorized by the applicable rules.

3. Any alleged “new allegations” or “certain information” have not been addressed by either the Judicial Qualifications Commission or the Respondent Judge in this matter. If any “new allegations” or “certain information” comes to light, it will need to be addressed on its own merits, after written notice, hearing, and response by the Respondent Judge as provided for by the Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules requiring the matter to be addressed on its own merits.

Respectfully submitted,
